

INTAKE FORM

The information requested below will be used to assess your situation and, if retained, to help guide our overall representation. *An attorney/client relationship is not established unless and until the firm is retained with a fully executed contract of representation. Your retainer must be paid in full before the final resolution of your case.* You may fairly assume that communication with any Moore Law staff or attorney will remain confidential and protected at all times. All contact information you disclose will be deemed acceptable to communicate with you, including leaving a message, unless you specify otherwise on this form.
